

Thomas K. Prindable

Professional Associations:

Chicago Bar Association (CBA)

Kane County Bar Association

Civil Procedure Committee Association (1990-present)

President (1979)

American Bar Association (ABA)

Section of Litigation

Law Practice Management

Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA)

Illinois Trial Lawyers Association (ITLA)

Legislative Committee (1991-present)

Association of Trial Lawyers of America (ATLA)

Speaker:

“Liens,” Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, December 5, 1998

“Client Communication,” DePaul University College of Law,

March 14, 1998

Faculty:

Harper Community College, Paralegal Program (1975-1979)

Media Appearances and Press Conferences:

Ewers—a family’s water is contaminated by leakage of ethylene from an underground storage tank at a nearby gas station,

January 11, 2001

Renal Care—27 patients at a dialysis center are poisoned with because of negligent maintenance of dialysis solution

aluminum toxicity

Seminara case—a car crashed through a family’s home killing a teenager watching television—press conference with all major newspaper, radio and television reporters in Chicago, December 5-6, 1998; January 5, 1999

Bourbonnais Amtrak train crash—on behalf of 12 injured passengers, National Transportation Safety Board hearings, November, 1999

Almeida case—woman killed at New Year’s Eve party, negligence action filed against man criminally charged and product liability action against gun manufacturer,

December 30, 1999

Education:

J.D. (1973), Chicago-Kent College of Law,

Illinois Institute of Technology

B.A. in Philosophy (1965), St. Mary of the Lake

Bachelor of Theology (1967), St. Mary of the Lake,

Loyola University

Masters in Theology (1969), St. Mary of the Lake,

Loyola University

Faculty:

Member of the Advisory Board of the American College at the Catholic University of Louvain, a seminary for Catholic theology studies for students from Dioceses in the United States, located in Leuven, Belgium.

Admitted:

Illinois Bar, 1973

United States District Court (Northern District, Illinois), 1973